

If You Want It

I can't remember
The words were forming in your mouth
You've found another
To bring you joy and play a part
I'm turning inside out
With the thought of a new day
I'll only come around
If you want it

I see you clearly
You dance around and fuck with us
A feigned intention
Well no one needs to feel your light

Superbike

I'm not that kind of fool
Who needs to read the room
(Somebody tell me)
If I've fallen from your lips
Straight to your fingertips
(Somebody tell me)

Now you're waiting in the light
Patiently to my surprise
(Somebody tell me)
I pick up the superbike
Going 80 in the night
(Somebody tell me)
Said you wanted something else
Something new for show and tell
Gonna breathe until you're gone
Gonna breathe until you're

Peace Out

Point me to my chair
Make me sing that awful song
That you cannot bear
Still you take until it's gone
No hard
No hard feelings

Want me to say right words?
Make you feel incredible
I'm selling myself short
Pulling teeth to make it work
No hard
No hard feelings

Won't you try
Won't you try to forgive
Won't you try
Won't you try to be anyone else

We pace around the room
Make good friends with shiny floors
This apartment's so cold
Got not heat to fill the noise
You're driving no control
Wanna crack the window

Toss your phone
I'm in trouble tomorrow
We've got time to fake it so
No hard
No hard feelings

Won't you try

Devotion

Used to be the one to cry
And feel the motions
Painted a path to find
A strange devotion
I changed my mind
Well, look no further
Just takes some time
To come back down to earth

(It's only change)
I changed my mind
Just takes some time

I wanna change
I wanna change

Nighttime Drive

I'm sinking in my bed
We're leaving town tomorrow
It's only for the memories
So used to feeling numb

Shifting through the nighttime drive
We'll be alright

Been watching hours pass
Inside cars with no glass
Constructing shallow dreams of Shoplifting at the Whole Foods

My baby says I'm growing tough
"Don't let others define you"
I'm sticking to the script now
I'll let my body win

Shifting through the nighttime drive
It'll be a while

Tenderness

Tell me
Did you fall in at first glance?
Do you think you'll take a chance?
Do you think on the weekend I could know?

Show me
Before you haunt me on the screen
Will my affection pull the strings?
Another forgotten memory

We've built
This city that we're sinking in Nobody wants to play pretend
I just know that

I'm feeling like we've just begun
Nothing's ever good enough
Tenderness is all I've got

Anak Ko

Pretend to play it
Let's fall in love
This game, so hollow
I come undone
We'll keep it quiet
Won't show you off
Somewhere I'll feel it
When you are gone

Crown

Arranging your best words
Tying the knot
A brighter tomorrow
Could you take a shot?

Don't wanna slow down
Don't wanna forget
The company's fine
The feeling's alright

You've got your best friends
Searching for miles
Static in their heads
Eating the night

Don't wanna slow down
Don't wanna forget
The company's fine
The feeling's alright
Don't wanna come down
Don't wanna jump in
The moment's enough

You never had to follow through
You're singing now
Still out of tune
The crown belongs to second best
You'll do it all over again

Get Well

Get well
I hope you can
How do you find peace
With a drink in your hand
I've been sick like you
I've had my share
Don't wanna find you
On the other end

I will be your friend
Keep you safe instead
I'll show you you're special
I don't want to forget
